

Children's Day Celebration at JIM

Date – November 14, 2017

Participants – All students of JIM

Children's day also known as Bal Divas in India is celebrated every year on 14th of November to increase the awareness of people towards the rights, care and education of children. Children's day is celebrated as a tribute on the first Prime Minister of India, Jawaharlal Nehru's birthday. Children are the key of success and development of the country as they would lead their country in different and new technological way. They are gorgeous and shine same like the precious pearls. Children are the God gifts to their parents by the almighty. They are innocent, admirable, pure and loved by everyone. The childhood is the great moments in the life of everybody which should be necessarily given a right track to become successful in the future as an asset of the country.

For the progress and development of the students, Jagran Institute of Management organized various fun, games and sporting events like Three legged race, Back to Kindergarten, Wheel barrel race, Goal hitting, Lady with the lamp, Balloon race, Back to ABC, Dress up game, Save your balloon - a whole day activity program. During this, student's participation and enthusiasm reached the epitome. The program was very successful and students loved every minute of it. This was a day of an entertaining engagement with the students.

Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru once said "The children of today will make the India of tomorrow. The way we bring them up will determine the future of the country".
